SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

On 08-13-07 The Placer County Sheriff's Department served a search warrant at a business called National Medical Services which also did business as Independent Mobility Products located at 12280 Shale Ridge Road in Auburn.

The warrant was served after determining the owner of the business had been using a relative's social security number and name to obtain credit for goods. After obtaining all the items on credit he could, the relative was then forced to file bankruptcy. Approximately $100,000.00 dollars in merchandise was recovered from the business.

The suspect Robert Henning, 56 years old, of Auburn is in custody in the Placer County Jail on charges related to other investigations. Additional grand theft charges are expected to be filed in regards to the latest incident.

The items recovered consist of medical mobility goods to include scooters, wheel chairs, walkers, and other items.

Any questions involving this crime should be directed to Detective Jim Hudson at 530-889-7800.
